Statement of intent

Claverley CE Primary recognises the effect that an inclusive teaching style can have on pupils' progress, both inside and outside of the school environment. At our school, we provide a broad and balanced curriculum which encompasses spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, in accordance with the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA

The school has created this policy in order to ensure that:

- All pupils are provided with a balanced and broad curriculum which encompasses the traditions of Great Britain as well as a variety of other mainstream religions and beliefs.
- All staff members are aware of planning, assessment, teaching and learning requirements for the RE curriculum.
- All pupils know how to plan, practice and evaluate their work.
- All pupils understand all elements of RE, as per the locally-agreed curriculum.
- All pupils receive a high level of teaching which is maintained at all times.
- Community cohesion and high standards of achievement are promoted.
- Progression of academic achievement occurs consistently throughout the key stages

1. Legal framework

This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- The Education Act 1996
- The Education Act 2002
- The School Standards and Framework Act

This policy has been created with regard to the following statutory and non-statutory guidance:

- DfE (2019) 'Religious education in English schools: Non-statutory guidance 2010'
- DfE (2021) 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage'

This policy has been created in conjunction with the following school policies:

- British Values Policy
- Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy

2. Roles and responsibilities

Claverley CE primary believes that, in order to facilitate teaching and learning, acceptable behaviour must be demonstrated in all aspects of school life. The school is committed to:

Our Vision and Mission

As a church school, we aim to offer a challenging education for the children within a Christian framework.

Our vision at Claverley C of E primary is 'to encourage one another and build each other up' (1 Thessalonians 5:11) so that we are each empowered to make the most of the lives we have been gifted by God - to live out our BEST lives.

Our School is dedicated to creating a happy, stimulating learning environment supported by our mission.

Our mission to fulfil our vision and enable all to flourish through being our BEST is:

Believe that we can change things for the better (Hope)

Respect our environment and each other (Dignity)

Support our friends and community (Community)

Take every opportunity to learn (Wisdom)

And our motto: 'encourage one another and build each other up' (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

The subject leader is responsible for:

- Preparing policy documents, supporting with curriculum plans and schemes of work for the subject.
- Reviewing changes to the locally-agreed curriculum and advising teachers on their implementation.
- Monitoring the teaching and learning of RE, providing support for staff where necessary.
- Ensuring continuity and progression from year group to year group.
- Encouraging staff to provide effective learning opportunities for pupils.
- Helping to develop subject colleagues' expertise in RE.
- Organising the deployment of resources and carrying out an annual audit of all related resources.
- Managing and maintaining resources.
- Liaising with teachers across all phases.
- Communicating developments in the subject to all teaching staff and the SLT as appropriate.
- Leading staff meetings and providing staff members with the appropriate training.
- Organising, providing and monitoring staff CPD opportunities regarding RE.
- Ensuring common standards are met for recording and assessing pupil performance.
- Advising on the contribution of RE to other curriculum areas, including cross-curricular and extra-curricular activities, e.g. PSHE lessons.
- Collating assessment data and setting new priorities for the development of RE in subsequent years.
- Reviewing and updating long-term and medium-term lesson plans on an annual basis, and communicating these to teachers prior to the start of a new term.

Classroom teachers are responsible for:

- Acting in accordance with this policy.
- Ensuring progression of pupils' RE, with due regard to the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA.
- Planning lessons effectively, ensuring a range of teaching methods are used to cover the content of the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA
- Liaising with the subject leader about key topics, resources and support for individual pupils.
- Monitoring the progress of pupils in their class and reporting this on an annual basis to parents.
- Reporting any concerns regarding the teaching of the subject to the subject leader or a member of the SLT.
- Undertaking any training that is necessary in order to effectively teach RE.
- Reviewing and updating short-term lesson plans, building on the medium-term lesson plans, taking into account pupils' needs and identifying the methods in which topics could be taught.

The SENCO is responsible for:

- Advising staff on how best to support pupils' needs.
- Advising staff on the inclusion of learning objectives in pupils' individual education plans.
- Advising staff on the use of teaching assistants in order to meet pupils' needs.

3. EYFS

All children in the EYFS will be taught RE as an integral part of their learning, in line with the following Early Learning Goals:

- Personal, social and emotional development
- Understanding the world

All children will encounter religions and world-views through multiple methods of teaching, e.g. books, educational visits and storytelling.

All children will reflect on their feelings and experiences.

Teachers will encourage imaginative play and curiosity in children.

All RE teaching and learning will have regard to the most up-to-date version of the DfE's EYFS framework.

4. Curriculum

Claverley CE Primary adheres to the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA.

RE provision will include a distinct body of knowledge and will enable all pupils to make effective progress in achieving RE learning outcomes.

The school will make provisions to account for parents' right to withdraw their child from RE lessons.

All pupils will have a high quality, coherent and progressive experience of RE.

The school will decide the attitudes and skills it wishes to emphasise across a school year or key stage, which meets the needs of the pupils.

The school will ensure that RE provisions contribute to the cross-curricular dimensions of the wider curriculum.

Pupils will be introduced to issues of right and wrong, good and evil, conflict and justice.

Good practice for the curriculum includes:

- Exploring controversial issues in the modern world.
- Working with local communities who promote the beliefs taught in lessons.
- Learning outside the classroom by participating in educational visits.
- Introducing themed days and assemblies which celebrate different beliefs.

- Encouraging pupils to deploy their skills and reflect on questions regarding truth and morality.
- Promoting debate and dialogue of pupils within their local community.

5. Teaching and learning

The RE curriculum is delivered at least once a week for KS1 and KS2.

Classroom teachers use high-quality texts and resources which model the religious and non-religious beliefs of Great Britain, in accordance with the school's British Values Policy.

Classroom teachers encourage pupils to discuss topics covered in RE with their peers and as a whole class.

During RE lessons, sufficient time is given for pupils to discuss, plan, edit and revise their work.

To improve understanding of the topic, several methods of teaching are deployed, including but not limited to:

- Storytelling
- Teacher-led activities
- Pupil initiated activities
- Dramatic performance

To improve communication and language in the classroom, teachers will encourage pupils':

- Organisation, clarification and sequencing of thoughts, feelings and ideas.
- Development of their own narratives in relation to the stories they hear in lessons.
- Exploration of their feelings and emotions towards set narratives.

6. Planning

All lessons will have clear learning objectives, which are shared and reviewed with pupils.

Planning for RE will comprise long-term, medium-term and short-term planning which will be undertaken by the relevant member of staff, e.g. the classroom teacher.

Long-term plans will be created by the subject leader and will include the topics studied during each term in the key stage.

Which religions are we studying in depth?

4–5s Reception	Children will encounter Christianity and other faiths, as part of their growing sense of self, their own community and their place within it.
5–7s Key Stage 1	Christians, Jews and Muslims.
7–11s Key Stage 2	Christians, Muslims, Hindus and Jews.

Medium-term plans will be established by the subject leader and the details of work studied each term will be outlined for the teacher to build upon.

Short-term plans will include the details of work studied during each lesson. Short-term plans will reflect the lesson objectives and proceeding aims of future lessons.

7. Assessment and reporting

Pupils will be assessed using methods of formative and summative assessment throughout the year.

Formative assessment will be carried out routinely throughout the year. These take the form of quizzes, 1 minute writing etc.

The results from formative assessments will be used to inform teachers' lesson plans.

Summative assessment will be carried out at the end of a unit of work. Teachers will use the results to assess pupils' overall achievement for each half term. This information will be passed on at the end of the school year to each pupil's future teachers, in order to measure how well a pupil has progressed at any given time in their religious education.

Verbal reports will be provided at parent-teacher interviews during the Autumn and Spring terms.

Parents will be provided with a written report about their child's progress during the Summer term every year. These will include information on pupils' attitudes towards RE and understanding of the key concepts.

The progress of pupils with SEND will be monitored by the SENCO. The SENCO will also communicate with the classroom teacher to ensure any changes to assessment and attainment are implemented effectively.

8. Resources

Display walls will be utilised and updated, in accordance with the topics being taught at the time.

The school library will contain an array of resources to support pupils' learning.

9. Equal opportunities

All pupils will have equal access to the RE curriculum.

Learning ability, physical ability, linguistic ability, gender, ethnicity and/or cultural circumstances will not impede pupils from accessing RE lessons.

The school's Equality, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Policy will be adhered to at all times.

When a pupil's participation in RE lessons is restricted due to the factors outlined above, the lessons will be adapted to meet the pupil's needs.

Cultural and gender differences are positively reflected in RE lessons and the teaching materials used.

10. Monitoring and review

This policy will be monitored and reviewed on an annual basis by the subject leader.

The scheduled review date for this policy is April 2025.

The subject leader will review the teaching of RE in the school, ensuring that taught content adheres to the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA.

Any changes to the locally-agreed syllabus of the LA will be communicated to the headteacher.

Any changes to this policy will be communicated to all teaching staff.
